International Academic Excellence

OXFORD LANGUAGE COLLEGE

WELCOME TO OXFORD LANGUAGE COLLEGE

The Oxford Language College is situated in a beautiful 10 acre site of woodland and gardens, 20 minutes by bus or car from the historic centre of Oxford. We are also a few minutes away from the famous River Thames.

Our campus includes a library, two conference rooms, cafeteria, student lounge and recreation areas, along with several computer suites and two conference rooms. Oxford Language College (OLC) is an associate college of Azad University (IR) in Oxford. This unique link enables the OLC to run Graduate and Post Graduate credit transfer programmes. The OLC is also able to run tailor made short courses in technical fields for university students and working professionals.

OXFORD

Oxford is home to the oldest university in the English speaking world and has been a centre for academic excellence for over 850 years.

The city is a magnet for international students.

Many of the world's top scientists, academics and writers have studied here.

The city is one of the most perfectly preserved historical locations in the world. Many buildings date back to the 1400s. The parks and the rivers provide a peaceful and relaxing environment.

Oxford will enrich you culturally and academically.

Oxford is home to:

- The Ashmolean Museum
- The Botanical gardens, the oldest in Britain
- The world famous Bodleian Library

WELCOME

'Our aim is to treat each student as a valued individual and to ensure a very positive educational and cultural experience in a friendly environment.'
